Jenkins Athletic Eligibility Policy

READ AND SIGN – Must be on file in athletic office before a student can compete.

At Jenkins Middle School, academic success and character are our priority. Students who choose to participate in our athletic program must perform at acceptable academic levels and honor our student code of conduct to compete. Athletes will need to meet three levels of eligibility to participate at games or matches. Students who fail to maintain their grades or exhibit repetitive or significant behavior concerns may be held from play. It is the responsibility of every athlete to monitor their grades throughout the season.

WEEKLY ELIGIBILITY is checked every Monday. Students are considered ineligible if they have; two or more classes with grades lower than a C, or any failing grade. Students are given until the end of the school day on Wednesday to submit a correction form, signed by their teacher, if they wish to be removed from the ineligible list. Any student who fails to complete a Corrections Form on time, remains ineligible and will be held out of competition Monday through Sunday the following week. The Athletic Director may extend this deadline to accommodate non-student days at his/her discretion. This may impact more than one competition. If a student's grade improves but they fail to submit a correction form, they will remain ineligible. A form must be submitted on time, with a teacher's signature to be reinstated as eligibility. No exceptions will be made. Each Monday grades will be checked again and a new list is created for the upcoming week of play.

QUARTERLY ELIGIBILITY is determined by the end of quarter grades. A grade "D" = 1 point and an "F" = 2 points. If a student completes the quarter with four or more points due to low grades they will not be eligible to try out or participate on teams the following quarter. Points from 4th quarter in the spring impact eligibility for fall sports of the next academic year. Transfer grades from a student's previous school will be taken into account. Quarterly Eligibility is reassessed at the end of each quarter. Jenkins is not responsible to refund fees collected by Park and Rec. for students removed due to quarterly eligibility.

BEHAVIORAL ELIGIBILITY is determined by the Athletic Director and Building Principal. Our athletes are expected to represent Jenkins Middle School with respect and dignity on and off the field/court. Athletes who fail to follow our student code of conduct place themselves at risk of disciplinary action, which can include being placed on the ineligible list or removal from an athletic program. Students who are removed for disciplinary action are not eligible for fee refunds. Students who are declared ineligible for behavioral reasons may be pulled from participation for a single event up to the remainder of the school year.
